

Prof. Dr.-Ing. Karl-Friedrich Thöne
c/o Thuringian Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry, Environment and Nature Conservation Hallesche Straße 16
D-99085 Erfurt
e-mail: karl-friedrich.thoene@dvw.de

Born 1956 in northern Germany. Study of Geodesy and Surveying at the Technical University of Berlin, first state examination, academical degree “Diplom-Ingenieur” (1982). 2 years of higher civil-service education in Lower Saxony (Germany) (1984). Lower Saxonian Land Development Administration – responsible for land consolidation and village renewal projects, land banking, large-scale nature conservation projects, public promotion for the development of rural spaces (1984-1990). 1990 offer of an appointment at the Federal Ministry for Food, Agriculture and Forestry in Bonn and Berlin in the “hot” phase of the German reunification, head of division “Land Management”, especially responsible for shaping the legal and technical frame for the restructuring of the private property system in the rural spaces of Eastern-Germany, transition of the agrarian sector(1990-1998).

Doctorate (PhD) in Engineer Sciences (Dr-Ing.) in 1994 at the Technical University of Berlin. Director-General for the Development of Rural Spaces, Forestry and Nature Conservation Thuringian Ministry for Agriculture, Nature Conservation and Environment in Erfurt, Thuringia, Germany. Honorary Professor at the Technical University of Dresden for International Land Policy and Rural Land Management. Lecturer at the Technical University of Munich, International Master Course “Land Management and Land Tenure”. President of the DVW – German Association for Geodesy, Geoinformation and Land Management

He has published over more than 60 publications.